ENGAGING WITH YOUR FUNDRAISING ISSUE

Specify how your fundraising project group has learnt about the issues affecting those they are fundraising to help? Judges will consider how students have developed in their knowledge of the community they have helped, or the wider impact that the project has had on attitudes in the school community. Total 200 words

INNOVATION AND CREATIVITY IN YOUR FUNDRAISING EFFORT

Please specify how your project has approached fundraising and philanthropy in a creative or innovative way? (For example, traditional fundraisers such as free-dress days or cake stalls can be updated or tailored to increase engagement with the cause being supported, art can be used to engage students and convey meaning, or a totally fresh approach to fundraising and awareness raising may have been utilised). Total 200 words

YOUR FUNDRAISING SUCCESS

Please specify funds raised by your fundraising project. (Judges will take into consideration the limited resources that are available to those in remote or very small schools and communities, and the size of your school, local community and fundraising group) Total 200 words

COMMUNICATING YOUR FUNDRAISING SUCCESS

Specify the frequency and quality of your feedback, including updates, photos, information provided to SchoolAid or alternatively, if your fundraising project is a locally based one, demonstrate how you have effectively provided feedback to your fundraising group, school and local communities (school website, school newsletters, local media engagement and support etc.) (Your fundraising project provides SchoolAid with a critical tool to encourage other schools to get involved in philanthropy) Total 200 words
